VALLEY TRUNK
British Virgin Islands, Caribbean

THE TOP LINE The private holiday retreat of the seriously well-off Wildenstein family for 30 years, opened up to the public in 2015.

WHO RENTS? Jet-set couples who want a 'billionaires playground' vibe (Richard Branson's Necker Island is almost in sight).

TELL ME MORE... The house overlooks Valley Trunk beach and is full of all things Asian, glitzy and quirky. There's a teak boat hanging from the ceiling filled to the brim with white orchids, and gilt everywhere. It's throwback fabulousness at its very best.

THE LUXE FACTOR From the moment you arrive, you will be treated like gods. A butler greets you with perfectly chilled Moët (which will flow non-stop throughout your stay), and lunch is freshly caught lobster, all provided with impeccable service. There's also exotic gardens to explore, glass-bottomed kayaks and romantic moonlight scuba-diving...

STAYING IN The honeymoon suite dominates the main house - with a balcony that's likely to be as big as your garden and looks out on to the serpentine pool. So if your friends and family are coming, you'll still have privacy.

ON THE DOORSTEP Take Xanadu, the 68ft yacht (fully staffed and included in the price) and go on an island-hopping tour of some of the other, untouched, British Virgin Islands.

WHAT TO PACK You'll want to feel smart in the evenings, so take a few special dresses.

HONEYMOON HIGHLIGHT We were served champagne while sitting in the pool; it doesn't get better than that.

GO From £3,850 per night, all inclusive; valleytrunk.com →
